

City of Grand Junction

Alcohol Server Responsibility Training

This FREE training for liquor licensees (owners), their managers and employees will be held on Wednesday, August 23, 2017 from 5:00 p.m. to approximately 7:00 p.m.

located in the City Hall Auditorium, 250 N. 5th Street

GJPD Officer David Keech has a fun and informative method of educating anyone who dispenses alcohol and how they can protect themselves and you.

The training will cover:

Server Responsibility

ID Checking & Enforcement

Recognizing Signs of Intoxication

Guarding Against Over Service of Patrons

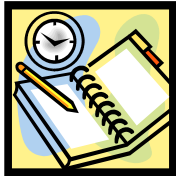

Here are some good reasons and benefits why you should plan on attending:

- This is an excellent opportunity to get your employees trained on their responsibility in serving alcohol, educating your employees on the tools and techniques necessary to recognize signs of intoxication and over service of patrons.
- Participants must have a 70% score on the test to receive certificates of completion.
- This is also a good time to network with others in your business arena!
- This training is being provided to you free of charge!
- You will learn how to stay compliant with State and Local regulations
- Learn to protect your place of business from alcohol liability lawsuits and penalties for alcohol violations
- Have a better bottom line through lower insurance premiums
- Learn improved customer service and satisfaction with increased staff professionalism

If you would like to participate in this opportunity, please mark YES below, fill in the information requested and return the bottom portion by noon on August 23, 2017 to the City Clerk's Office, 250 N. 5th Street, Grand Junction, CO 81501, or call us at 244-1509 or email janeth@gjcity.org to register!
